

BIOGRAPHY

Debra Mugnani Monroe is the owner of Monroe Personnel Service, LLC and Temptime, a twenty year old temporary and regular staffing service. Over the years, she has developed many ways to integrate spirituality into her work and is very proud of her involvement with this groundbreaking discussion group.

Debra received a Juris Doctorate from the University of California at Davis and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History and French from the University of California at Berkeley.

As former State Secretary, past President and current member of the Golden Gate Chapter of the California Association of Staffing Professionals, Debra takes an active role in promoting professionalism, integrity and ethics in the staffing industry. She currently serves at the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce as both Chair of the Leadership Council and the Women in Business Roundtables program. She is an alumna of the Chamber's prestigious Leadership San Francisco program. Monroe has also held leadership positions with the Asian Pacific Personnel Association, the San Francisco Employer's Advisory Council, the ECF Forum, an affiliate of the National Association of Female Executives. A native San Franciscan, she is the co-founder of the Annual San Francisco Native Jamboree, a community-building event meant to bring together people born or raised in San Francisco to celebrate their unique roots.
